The Siberian Telegraph line is working to Queenstown, Ireland, from Irkutsk, Siberia, a distance of 6,500 miles. Annexed is an interesting dispatch, which was received at Queenstown at 10 minutes past 10 in the morning on the date when it was sent at 10 minutes past 5 in the morning. This, with a fair allowance for a gain in apparent time, is a wonderful instance of speedy transmission of electric intelligence:

Irkutsk, Siberia, May 8th.—10 A. M.—The working of the Siberian Telegraph line is now completely organized. The extension from here to the Chinese frontier—470 miles—in spite of all difficulties, is proceeding quickly, and the line is expected to be open by the end of this year.

By Cyrus W. Field, on board R. M. steamer Persia.

This message was received at the Electric Telegraph Company's office at Queenstown on Sunday morning at 10 A. M., 8th May, 1864. The distance from Irkutsk to Queenstown is 6,500 miles.—[Cor. S. F. Bulletin.]

INTERNAL REVENUE.
PURSUANT to an appointment and commission as Deputy Collector of Excise Tax, under Philip D. Moore, Esq. Collector of the Washington Territory District, the Undersigned is now collecting the Internal Revenue in this portion of Idaho, for the two years ending May 1st, 1865.
The law has exacted of me a bond in the penal sum of $20,000, which is on file in the Treasury Department, conditioned for the faithful discharge of my duty. It also requires every business man to take a license, and for neglect or refusal, fixes the penalty at three times the amount of the license, one hundred dollars, and two years imprisonment. For a failure to report correctly the number of animals butchered, the penalty is $10 per head. Three gallons is the line of demarkation between wholesale and retail in the liquor business, and one license will not cover both classes. Merchants selling original packages, are deemed wholesale dealers, those breaking packages, retailers, and one license will not cover both. Miners are not taxed as such, as has been falsely asserted; but, like all other kinds of business, they are liable to pay an income tax on all receipts above $500 and expenses.

Deputy Collector of Internal Revenue.
